Monza Site Visitor Guide

The world leader in serving science

Welcome to Monza

Monza is located 15km northeast of Milan and is most famous around the world for hosting the Italian Formula One Grand Prix.

Monza is part of the most populous and richest Lombardy region, home to 10M people representing 1/6 of the Italian population. This region produces 1/5 of Italy's GDP and Milan, its capital and second largest city, is the center of Fashion & Design.

The Cathedral and its square were the center of religious and political life of Monza, dates to 1300.

The Royal Villa of Monza was built between 1777 and 1780 for the Archduke Ferdinand of Austria and later refurbished by King Humbert I of Italy in 1900.

Home of the Italian Grand Prix since 1922 with a 10 km Formula One racetrack.
