

1. GENERAL

1.1 These General Terms and Conditions of Sale ("Conditions") govern the offering, sale and delivery of all goods and/or services (hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Product(s)") from or on behalf of Thermo Fisher Scientific Cork Ltd, 25-28 North Wall Quay, Dublin 1, Ireland ("Thermo Fisher"), to client ("Client") and apply to all transactions between Thermo Fisher and Client

1.2 By contracting on the basis of the Conditions, Client agrees to the applicability thereof in respect of all future dealings, even if this is not explicitly stated.

1.3 THERMO FISHER explicitly rejects the applicability of any general terms and conditions of Client. Furthermore, the Conditions supersede any and all terms of prior oral and written quotations, communications, agreements and understandings of the parties in respect of the sale and delivery of the Products and shall apply in preference to and supersede any and all terms and conditions of any order placed by Client and any other terms and conditions submitted by Client. Failure by Thermo Fisher to object to the terms and conditions set by Client shall in no event be construed as an acceptance of any of the terms and conditions of Client. Neither Thermo Fisher's commencement of performance nor Thermo Fisher's delivery shall be deemed as acceptance of any of Client's terms and conditions. If the Conditions differ from any of the terms and conditions of Client, the Conditions and any subsequent communication or conduct by or on behalf of Thermo Fisher, including, without limitation, confirmation of an order and delivery of Products, constitute a counter-offer and not acceptance of such terms and conditions submitted by Client. Any communication or conduct of Client which confirms an agreement for the delivery of Products by Thermo Fisher, as well as acceptance by Client of any delivery of Products from Thermo Fisher shall constitute an unqualified acceptance by Client of the Conditions.

1.4 Thermo Fisher reserves the right to amend the Conditions at any time. Thermo Fisher will notify Client of any such amendments by sending the amended Conditions to Client, posting them on the aforementioned Internet sites or otherwise. The amended Conditions will take effect on the date of notification of these amendments. The amended Conditions shall apply to all transactions concluded between Client and Thermo Fisher after the date of such notification.

1.5 Any electronic communication between Thermo Fisher and Client shall be effective as originals and shall be considered to be a "writing" between the parties. The electronic communication system used by Thermo Fisher will serve as sole proof for the content and the time of delivery and receipt of such electronic communications.

2. QUOTATIONS, ORDERS AND CONFIRMATION

2.1 Unless stated otherwise by Thermo Fisher, quotations made by Thermo Fisher in whatever form are not binding to Thermo Fisher and merely constitute an invitation to Client to place an order. All quotations issued by Thermo Fisher are revocable and subject to change without notice. Orders are not binding until accepted by Thermo Fisher in writing ("Confirmed Order"). Thermo Fisher shall be entitled to refuse an order without indicating the reasons.

2.2 Price quotations based on estimated or projected quantities are subject to increase in the event that actual quantities purchased during the specified period are less than the estimated or projected quantities.

2.3 Each delivery shall stand as a separate transaction and any failure to deliver shall have no consequences for other deliveries.

3. PRICES

3.1 Prices and currencies of Thermo Fisher's Products are as set out in the Confirmed Order. Unless otherwise agreed, Thermo Fisher's prices include standard packaging but do not include Value Added Tax or any other similar applicable taxes, duties, levies or charges in any jurisdiction levied in relation to the Products or the delivery thereof ("Taxes"). The amount of any Taxes levied in connection with the sale of Products to Client shall be for Client's account and shall either be added to each invoice or separately invoiced by Thermo Fisher to Client. If Thermo Fisher grants a discount, this discount only relates to the delivery specifically mentioned in the Confirmed Order.

3.2 Unless the prices have been indicated as firm by Thermo Fisher in the Confirmed Order Thermo Fisher is entitled to increase the price of the Products still to be delivered if the cost price determining factors have been subject to an increase. These factors include but are not limited to: raw and auxiliary materials, energy, products obtained by Thermo Fisher from third parties, wages, salaries, social security contributions, governmental charges, freight costs and insurance premiums. Thermo Fisher shall notify Client of such increase which shall not exceed the increase in the determining cost factors.

4. PAYMENT AND CLIENT'S CREDIT

4.1 Unless stated otherwise in the Confirmed Order, payment shall be made on the basis of net cash, to be received by Thermo Fisher within 30 (thirty) days following the date of Thermo Fisher's invoice. All payments shall be made without any deduction on account of any Taxes and free of set-off or other counterclaims except for set-offs with uncontested and/or enforceable counterclaims.

4.2 With regard to payment for the Products, time is of the essence. Thermo Fisher may, without prejudice to any other rights of Thermo Fisher, charge interest on any overdue payment at 12% (twelve percent) per annum from the due date computed on a daily basis until all outstanding amounts are paid in full. All costs and expenses incurred by Thermo Fisher with respect to the collection of overdue payments (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees, expert fees, court costs and other expenses of litigation) shall be for Client's account.

4.3 Every payment by Client shall in the first place serve to pay the judicial and extra-judicial costs and the accrued interest and shall afterwards be deducted from the oldest outstanding claim regardless of any advice to the contrary from Client.

4.4 Any complaint with respect to the invoice must be notified to Thermo Fisher in writing within 20 (twenty) days after the date of invoice. Thereafter, Client shall be deemed to have approved the invoice.

5. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE

5.1 Unless stated otherwise in the Confirmed Order, all deliveries of Products shall be FCA (Free Carrier) Thermo Fisher site in Cork. The term FCA shall have the meaning as defined in the latest version of INCOTERMS published by the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris, France, at the time of the Confirmed Order.

5.2 Unless stated otherwise in the Confirmed Order, any times or dates for delivery by Thermo Fisher are estimates and shall not be of the essence. Thermo Fisher is entitled to deliver the Products as stated in the Confirmed Order in parts and to invoice separately. Delay in delivery of any Products shall not relieve Client of its obligation to accept delivery thereof, unless Client cannot reasonably be expected to accept such late delivery. Client shall be obliged to accept the Products and pay the rate specified in the Confirmed Order for the quantity of Products delivered by Thermo Fisher.

6. CANCELLATION

6.1 Client's wrongful non-acceptance or rejection of Products or cancellation of the Confirmed Order shall entitle Thermo Fisher to recover from Client, in addition to any other damages caused by such action:

(i) in the case of Products which reasonably cannot be resold by Thermo Fisher to a third party, the price of such Products as quoted in the Confirmed Order; or

(ii) in the case of Products which can be resold by Thermo Fisher, damages equal to 50% (fifty percent) of the price for the Products as quoted in the Confirmed Order as liquidated damages, unless Client can demonstrate that the actual damages incurred by Thermo Fisher are lower than 50% of the price or were not suffered at all.

7. EXAMINATION AND CONFORMITY TO SPECIFICATIONS

7.1 On delivery and during the handling, use, commingling, alteration, incorporation, processing, transportation, storage, importation and (re)sale of the Products (the "Use"), Client shall examine the Products and satisfy itself that the Products delivered meet the agreed specifications for the Products as stated in the Confirmed Order or, in the absence of agreed specifications, to the most recent specifications used by Thermo Fisher at the time of delivery of the Products (the "Specifications").

7.2 Complaints about the Products shall be made in writing and must reach Thermo Fisher not later than 7 (seven) days from the date of delivery in respect of any defect, default or shortage which would be apparent from a reasonable inspection on delivery, and 7 (seven) days from the date on which any other claim (e.g. hidden defects) was or ought to have been apparent, but in no event later than (i) 6 (six) months from the date of delivery of the Products or (ii) the expiry of the Products' shelf-life whichever is the earlier. Any Use of the Products shall be deemed to be an unconditional acceptance of the Products as of the date of delivery and a waiver of all claims in respect of the Products.

7.3 A determination of whether or not delivered Products conform to the Specifications shall be done solely by Thermo Fisher analysing the samples or records retained by Thermo Fisher and taken from the batches or production runs in which the Products were produced in accordance with the methods of analysis used by Thermo Fisher. In case of a disaccord between the parties concerning the quality of a batch or production run of Products supplied by Thermo Fisher to Client, Thermo Fisher will submit representative samples of said batch or run to an independent laboratory reasonably acceptable to Client to have determined whether or not the batch or run in question has met the Specifications. The results of such analysis shall be binding upon the parties and the party unable to uphold its position shall bear the related costs of the laboratory.

7.4 Defects in parts of the Products do not entitle Client to reject the entire delivery of the Products, unless Client cannot reasonably be expected to accept delivery of the remaining non defective parts of the Products. Complaints, if any, do not affect Client's obligation to pay as defined in Article 4.

8. TRANSFER OF RISK AND PROPERTY

8.1 The risk of the Products shall pass to Client according to the applicable Incoterm (see Article 5.1).

8.2 The title to the Products shall not pass to Client and full legal and beneficial ownership of the Products shall remain with Thermo Fisher unless and until Thermo Fisher has received payment in full for the Products, including costs such as interest, charges, expenses etc.

8.3 In the event of termination on the basis of Article 16, Thermo Fisher shall, without prejudice to any other rights of Thermo Fisher be entitled to require immediate return of the Products, or to repossess the Products, for which it may invoke a retention of title.

9. LIMITED WARRANTY

9.1 Thermo Fisher solely warrants that on the date of delivery the Products shall conform to the Specifications. If and to the extent Products are in breach with such warranty, as determined in accordance with Article 7, Thermo Fisher may at its own option and within a reasonable time either repair or replace the Products at no charge to Client, or issue a credit for any such Products in the amount of the original invoice price. Accordingly, Thermo Fisher's obligation shall be limited solely to repair or replacement of the Products or for credit of the Products.

9.2 Thermo Fisher's obligation to repair, replace, or credit shall be contingent upon receipt by Thermo Fisher of timely notice of any alleged non-conformance of Products and, if applicable, the return of the Products, in accordance with Article 7.

9.3 The foregoing warranty is exclusive and in lieu of all other warranties, representations, conditions or other terms, express, implied, statutory, contractually or otherwise, including, without limitation, any warranty of merchantability, suitability or fitness for any purpose, or absence of infringement of any claim in any intellectual property right covering the Products.

10. LIMITED LIABILITY

10.1 Thermo Fisher's liability for any and all claims arising out of or in connection with the Products and the Use thereof shall per occurrence be limited to direct damages of Client and shall under no circumstances exceed the sales value of the defective batch of the relevant Product supplied to Client.

10.2 Thermo Fisher shall under no circumstances be liable to Client or any other person for any kind of special, incidental, indirect, consequential or punitive damage or loss, cost or expense, including without limitation, damage based upon lost goodwill, lost sales or profit, delay in delivery, work stoppage, production failure, impairment of other goods or based on any other cause, and whether arising out of or in connection with breach of warranty, breach of contract, misrepresentation, negligence or otherwise.

11. FORCE MAJEURE

11.1 Neither party shall be liable in any way for any damage, loss, cost or expense arising out of or in connection with any delay, restriction, interference or failure in performing any obligation towards the other party caused by any circumstance beyond its reasonable control, including, without limitation, acts of God, laws and regulations, administrative measures, orders or decrees of any court, earthquake, flood, fire, explosion, war, terrorism, riot, sabotage, accident, epidemic, strike, lockout, slowdown, labour disturbances, difficulty in obtaining necessary labour or raw materials, lack of or failure of transportation, breakdown of plant or essential machinery, emergency repair or maintenance, breakdown or shortage of utilities, delay in delivery or defects in goods supplied by suppliers or subcontractors ("Force Majeure").

11.2 Upon the occurrence of any event of Force Majeure, the party suffering thereby shall promptly inform the other party by written notice thereof specifying the cause of the event and how it will affect its performance of its obligations under the Confirmed Order. In the event of any delay, the obligation to deliver shall be suspended for a period equal to the time loss by reason of Force Majeure. However, should a Force Majeure event continue or be expected to continue for a period extending to more than 60 (sixty) days after the agreed delivery date, either Party is entitled to cancel the affected part of the Confirmed Order without any liability to the other Party.

12. MODIFICATIONS AND INFORMATION; INDEMNITY

12.1 Unless the Specifications have been agreed to be firm for a certain period of time or quantity of Products, Thermo Fisher reserves the right to change or modify the Specifications and/or manufacture of Products and to substitute materials used in the production and/or manufacture of Products from time to time without notice. Client acknowledges that data in Thermo Fisher's catalogues, product data sheets and other descriptive publications distributed or published on its websites may accordingly be varied from time to time without notice.

12.2 Client must utilise and solely rely on its own expertise, know-how and judgment in relation to the Products and Client's Use thereof. Consultation provided by Thermo Fisher shall not give rise to any additional obligations. Client shall indemnify and hold Thermo Fisher harmless from and against any and all damages, losses, costs, expenses, claims, demands and liabilities (including without limitation product liabilities) arising out of or in connection with the Products and Client's Use thereof.

13. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND STANDARDS

13.1 Client acknowledges that the Use of the Products may be subject to requirements or limitations under any law, statute ordinance, regulation, code or standard ("Laws and Standards"). Client shall be exclusively responsible for (i) ensuring compliance with all Laws and Standards associated with its intended Use of the Products; and (ii) obtaining all necessary approvals, permits or clearances for such Use.

14. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

14.1 Thermo Fisher and Client are independent contractors, and the relationship created hereby shall not be deemed to be that of principal and agent.

15. NON-ASSIGNMENT AND CHANGE OF CONTROL

15.1 Neither party may assign any of the rights or obligations under the Confirmed Order without the prior written consent of the other party, except that either party may assign such rights and obligations to any of its affiliates or to a third party acquiring all or a substantial part of its assets or business relating to the Products.

15.2 Thermo Fisher shall have the right to terminate the Confirmed Order with immediate effect if at any time during the term of the Confirmed Order a person or group of persons, who are unrelated to the persons controlling Client as of the date of the Confirmed Order, acquires control, through ownership of voting securities or otherwise, over Client. Client must notify Thermo Fisher of such acquisition within 10 (ten) days thereof. Thermo Fisher may exercise its right to terminate the Confirmed Order by giving Client written notice of such exercise within 10 (ten) days after the date of receipt of such notice.

16. SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

16.1 If Client is in default of performance of its obligations towards Thermo Fisher and fails to provide to Thermo Fisher adequate assurance of Client's performance before the date of scheduled delivery; or if Client becomes insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or goes into liquidation (other than for the purpose of a reconstruction or amalgamation) or any bankruptcy proceeding shall be instituted by or against Client or if a trustee or receiver or administrator is appointed for all or a substantial part of the assets of Client or if Client enters into a deed of arrangement or makes any assignment for the benefit of its creditors, then Thermo Fisher may by notice in writing forthwith, without prejudice to any of its other rights:

- (i) demand return and take repossession of any delivered Products which have not been paid for and all costs relating to the recovery of the Products shall be for the account of Client; and/or
- (ii) suspend its performance or terminate the Confirmed Order for pending delivery of Products unless Client makes such payment for Products on a cash in advance basis or provides adequate assurance of such payment for Products to Thermo Fisher.

16.2 In any such event of Article 16.1 all outstanding claims of Thermo Fisher shall become due and payable immediately with respect to the Products delivered to Client and not repossessed by Thermo Fisher.

17. WAIVER

17.1 Failure by Thermo Fisher to enforce at any time any provision of the Conditions shall not be construed as a waiver of Thermo Fisher's right to act or to enforce any such term or condition and Thermo Fisher's rights shall not be affected by any delay, failure or omission to enforce any such provision. No waiver by Thermo Fisher of any breach of Client's obligations shall constitute a waiver of any other prior or subsequent breach.

18. SEVERABILITY AND CONVERSION

18.1 In the event that any provision of the Conditions shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable, the same shall not affect in any respect whatsoever, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions between the parties and shall be severed therefrom. The pertaining provisions held to be invalid or unenforceable shall be reformed to meet the legal and economic intent of the original provisions to the maximum extent permitted by law.

19. LIMITATION OF ACTION

19.1 Unless otherwise stated hereunder, no action by Client shall be brought unless Client first provides written notice to Thermo Fisher of any claim alleged to exist against Thermo Fisher within 30 (thirty) days after the event complained of first becomes known to Client and an action is commenced by Client within 12 (twelve) months after such notice.

20. GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE

20.1 The parties' rights and obligations arising out of or in connection with the Confirmed Order and/or the Conditions shall be governed, construed, interpreted and enforced according to the laws of Ireland, without regard to the conflict of laws provisions thereof. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods dated 11 April 1980 (CISG) shall not apply.

20.2 The parties agree that any suits, actions or proceedings that may be instituted by any party shall be initiated exclusively before the competent courts of Cork, Ireland, without restricting any rights of appeal and without prejudice to Thermo Fisher's right to submit the matter to any other competent court.

21. SURVIVAL OF RIGHTS

21.1 The parties' rights and obligations shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors, permitted assigns, directors, officers, employees, agents and legal representatives. Termination of one or more of the parties' rights and obligations, for whatever reason, shall not affect those provisions of the Conditions which are intended to remain in effect after such termination.

22. HEADINGS

22.1 The headings contained in the Conditions are included for mere convenience of reference and shall not affect the latter's construction or interpretation.

23. LANGUAGE

23.1 The original version of the Conditions is made in the English language. In the event of any inconsistency or contradiction between the English version and any translation thereof, the English version shall prevail.

24. CONFIDENTIALITY

24.1 The Confidentiality Agreement entered into between the parties will apply to all confidential information about the parties and the services to be conducted under a Confirmed Order, and the Confidentiality Agreement is incorporated herein by reference. If the Confidentiality Agreement expires or terminates before the expiration or termination of a Confirmed Order, then the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement will nonetheless continue to govern the parties' obligations of confidentiality for the term of a Confirmed Order and for 5 (five) years thereafter.
